Short Biography

Carlo Rinaldi is an Italian Cinematographer who splits his time between Los Angeles, Rome, and Milan. He is an active member of the Italian Society of Cinematographers and of IATSE Local600. His experience as a Cinematographer ranges from TV commercials for major clients such as General Motors, Samsung, Allianz, ANIA, Aprilia, Barilla, Pfizer, Chicco, Telecom Italia, to Emmy Award winning documentaries such as “Caught in the Crossfire” produced by the Los Angeles Times.

His narrative credits include the TV show Guidance, produced by AwesomenessTV (Dreamworks) and streaming on HULU, many short films and TV pilots, and the Feature film “The haunting on long island: the Amityville murders”.

His work on the pilot for “Chimeras” has been published in the American Cinematographer Magazine.
